Paragraphs of Current Interest for the Investor.

Testerday faced so many events which brokers it was remarkable that business did not stop entirely. Just think, to-day was announced as a holiday. That meant, aside from other more serious subjects, football, automobile trips and all the side ssues which go to fill a week-end period. Monday will be the day before election, so probably a dull market is in prospect. and then there will be nothing to do until Wednesday.

The Railroads' Needs.

When James J. Hill stated that within period of ten years the railroads of this country would be called on to expend more than $5,000,000,000 to meet the demands of growing traffic its general comment was that the amount was extravagant. Recently President Winchell period of the next five years to provide the necessary facilities for keeping pace with the growth of the country. This country is developing very rapidly.

Mine Operation Suspended.

The operation of many mines in all parts of the anthracite region was suspended yesterday because of the mine perations will have to be suspended. The observance by the mine workers of special holidays, in addition to the regular legal holidays, has had a serious effect in reducing the total tonnage produced from the mines. The mines are being operated on a full time basis except when there is no labor available.
